

FREW, HAGANS & HALL,
Office, 15 Quay Street.TERMS OF THE DAILY:
By Mail, per year, in advance, $7.50
Six months, 4.00
Three months, 2.00
Delivered by Carriers, per week, 15TERMS OF SEMI-WEEKLY:
Per year, in advance, $3.00
Six months, 1.50
Three months, 1.00

BY TELEGRAPH.

ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

Exclusively to the Intelligencer.

(By the Western Union Line,
Office North-west cor. of Main and Monroe st.)U. S. SENATE.
EXTRA SESSION.

The CHAIR stated the unfinished business to be the resolution of Mr. Wilson, to discharge Messrs. Wilson and Ramsdell on adjournment of the present session, with the pending amendment of Mr. Davis, of Ky.

Mr. CARPENTER said he had nothing to do with starting the investigation, and denied the often repeated newspaper statement that he had been made a case-pawp of Mr. CONKLING. He had received an anonymous letter threatening that the entire American press would be directed against him if he should proceed with the investigation. He, too, had incurred such displeasure by moving a resolution to commit witnesses. He had never seen any other course taken in cases where witnesses refused to answer. As to the correspondence being in prison, they were furnished with bed rooms in the Capitol, where they were summoned. They should have been committed to jail, as any Justice of the Peace would have done, for the witnesses were undoubtedly held in contempt. If this had been the case, the Senate would have had the required answers.

Mr. CARPENTER commented severely on the correspondence of the New York Tribune, and among other things said that a malicious libel was perpetrated on him in a recent communication purporting to give an account of the examination of Tinker. He spoke of the morality of the press, and wanted to know if the correspondents of Newspaper Row would sanction what the Tribune correspondent had done, and at the close of their custody give them a complimentary dinner? The New York Tribune was an alias for Horace Greeley, who had befriended him by acts of kindness; but Horace Greeley is in Texas delivering agricultural addresses, and has left the Tribune in the control of a fop and pretender, Whiteley Field.

Mr. CARPENTER continued at some length in opposition to the pending resolution to discharge the Tribune correspondent at the end of this session.

Mr. FENTON sent up a paper, which by request he caused to be read, signed by Messrs. Hinton, Boynton, Shaw and Knowlton, newspaper correspondents, saying that Mr. Tinker had made statements published in the New York Tribune and Dispatch, but the statements were not as bitter toward the Committee as those Tinker made in their presence.

After further debate by Mr. TUCKER and Mr. Davis, Mr. Knowlton, the latter withdrew his amendment, which was to the effect that the discharge of the witness should be left to the legal proceedings.

Mr. NYE reviewed it. In the course of his remarks he said in the examination of the Ku-Klux outrages a witness had refused to testify, instead of being furnished with a comfortable quarters, he would have been sent to jail until he answered them. The correspondents of the Tribune are in contempt, and are amenable to the law of the land.

Before proceeding further, Mr. HANLAN moved that the Senate go into Executive session, which was agreed to—yeas, 35; nays, 18.

WASHINGTON.

A Modest Request Under Consideration.

WASHINGTON, May 26.

The application of the Central Branch of the Union Trust Building Company, (date Acheson &amp; Pike's Pen) for about seven millions of dollars' worth of United States bonds and loans, in addition to the amount already received, has been referred by the Secretary of the Interior to the Attorney General at Washington.

THE TAX EXPENSE COMPANIES.

Judge Ruford made an elaborate argument before the Commissioner of Internal Revenue yesterday in behalf of local express companies. He reviewed at length the Internal Revenue laws applicable to express companies, and took the ground that the companies in question did not come within the meaning of said laws, and were therefore not liable to tax on their gross receipts.

It is understood that the subject discussed in the Senate to-day was dealing with the treaty at Washington, but the precise form of the proposition has not been ascertained. It is certain it elicited a long and earnest debate, which had not terminated at the adjournment. A number of Senators have left Washington for their homes within the last twenty-four hours, and as a result, the Senate today afternoon was scarcely able to preserve a quorum. In case there is none to-morrow, measures will be required to secure their attendance by sending the Sergeant-at-Arms after those Senators within convenient reach. The Senate meets at 12 o'clock to-morrow, and it is certain that it will adjourn on that day. The Senate has ratified an additional treaty between the United States and Great Britain, defining more clearly some of the provisions of the naturalization treaty.

The Assistant Secretary of the Interior, Mr. Cowan, has returned to Washington and resumed his official duties.

The usual Cabinet meeting, held on Tuesday, will be postponed till Wednesday, in consequence of the former being held on Tuesday.

In the Criminal Court to-day the case of R. P. Bowen, of South Carolina, was called up, but postponed until Tuesday next.

Vice President Coffey passed a quiet night and sat up half an hour this morning. He is still very weak.

A delegation of Good Templars, who have been in session at Baltimore, reached this city to-day and paid their respects to the President, Secretary Boutwell and other officials.

The subscriptions to the new loan to-day amount to $100,000.

The following telegram was received this evening from Minister Washburne, dated to-day: "There is fighting in the remote parts of the city, and some new parties of the Americans and their property are safe."

Gov. Scott, of South Carolina, who arrived here yesterday, had an interview with the President this morning, during which he said there was no necessity for putting the State under martial law, and that there was a good State feeling among the people.

The American Consul at Tangiers has gone to Fez on a visit to the Emperor of Morocco. In the House of Commons last night an amendment was offered by opposition to the army regulation bill and intended to kill the bill was rejected by sixteen majority. Gladstone announced that Parliament would adjourn for Whit-suntide recess to-day, Friday. The steamship Columbia from New York, touched at Merville.

Resumption in the Coal Mines.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 26.

The men in the employ of the Pittston &amp; Clinton company, Deacon &amp; Brockley and Butler Coal companies have resolved to resume work at the same terms given by the Pennsylvania Central to their men as soon as the operators will permit them to enter the works. There is only one shaft remaining idle in this place and resumption will probably take place on or before Monday next.

Nova Scotians Denouncing the Treaty.

HALIFAX, May 26.

The Chronicle this morning has a very strong article denouncing the treaty. The opposition journals are urging the government to convene the legislature, in order that that portion of the treaty on Washington bearing upon the fisheries may be discussed.

The Daily Intelligencer.

VOL. XIX.

WHEELING, W. VA., SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 27 1871.

NO. 241.

PARIS.

The Bloody Struggle for the City.

The Work of Fire and Sword Continues.

The Insurgents still hold Important Positions.

They Throw Petroleum Shells all over the City.

McMahon gives them a Warning.

OUTSIDE OF PARIS, Thursday, May 25.

The wind has changed, and the fires are observed to be slackening. The heavens are still illumined by flames. It is said Mazas Prison is reduced to cinders. Pears are still entertained for the safety of Archibald Doby. The Insurgents are attempting flight in the direction of Aubervilliers and Roumainville. The cannonading against Belleville and Chantilly continues.

OUTSIDE OF PARIS, Friday, May 26.

The cannonading against the insurgent positions at Belleville is vigorously resumed. Terrible fires are still raging inside of Paris. The Northern Railway is repaired, but entrance to the city is still refused. The German positions at Aubervilliers and elsewhere have been strengthened to prevent the escape of the Insurgents. The Germans permit only women and children inhabiting the burning quarters of Paris to leave the city.

VERSAILLES, May 26.

The Insurrection has been squelched in the Quarter Moutard of Paris, where 5,000 prisoners have been captured. The Insurgents are still confined to Belleville Les Buttes, and Chantilly, whence petroleum shells are fired all over Paris. McMahon sent the Insurgents their last summons to surrender, in which he says that all Insurgents captured with arms in their hands will be shot. The collections in the Louvre have all been saved, except the library, in which a great many valuable books were destroyed. The National Library and Grand Livre are safe. The Insurgents still hold Bevo, Place de la Bastille, Montmartre, Chantilly, Belleville. The Government troops captured Mazas Prison and the Lyons &amp; Orleans Railway stations. The hostages held by the Insurgents in Mazas had been transferred to the Prison of Roquette. The Insurgents evacuated and blew up Fort D'Ivry. The Government forces are now attacking the Place de la Bastille. At noon to-day a furious battle was in progress at Pantin.

LONDON, May 26.

Paris dispatches announce that Mr. Royale was destroyed by a mine. The Insurgents were driven to the cemetery of Pere La Chaise, surrounded, and must be captured.

A News dispatch contains a rumor that the Insurgents in Mazas Prison have been shot.

The Liberte says the foreign powers promise the extradition of members of the Commune in the event of their escape from France. Mr. Courbet, a prominent Communist, has been shot by the Versailles.

Names of Red Leaders Shot.

List of Palaces and Public Buildings Destroyed.

A Female Fire Brigade Shot.

OUTSIDE OF PARIS, May 26—A. M.

The following leading Insurgents have been shot: Valles, Amoureux, Brunel, Regault, Dombrowski, and Bousquet. The report of the arrest of Pyat and Desjardins is yet unconfirmed. It is rumored that all the hostages held by the Insurgents are safe, but nothing positive is known relative to them. The following named public buildings have been destroyed: The Palais de Justice, Ministry of Finance, Prefecture of Police, Court of Accounts, the Palais of the Legion of Honor, the Hotel de la Ville, and the Hotel de la Monnaie. The following have been saved: Ministry of Marine, Interior of Foreign Affairs and Agriculture, Pantheon, Ecole Militaire, Ecole Des Beaux Arts, Bank of France, Credit Foncier and the churches generally.

At 3 P. M. the battle at Pantin continues, the Insurgents being attacked on three sides by the Government troops. The confagurations in Paris continue.

ST. DENIS, May 26.

All the collections in the Louvre galleries and Palais Royal are intact. The troops to-day surprised and shot a large company of women engaged in pouring petroleum into cellars, and afterward throwing in lighted fuses.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, May 26.

A Gazette special announces that the triumphal entry of the German army into Berlin will take place on the 16th of June, and that the 18th of the same month will be observed as a day of thanksgiving throughout the empire. Bismarck has agreed to a compromise upon the Alsace question, making the government of the conquered territory a dictatorship until the final settlement of the Reichstag is, however, required for raising loans in Alsace.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, May 26.

The American Consul at Tangiers has gone to Fez on a visit to the Emperor of Morocco. In the House of Commons last night an amendment was offered by opposition to the army regulation bill and intended to kill the bill was rejected by sixteen majority. Gladstone announced that Parliament would adjourn for Whit-suntide recess to-day, Friday. The steamship Columbia from New York, touched at Merville.

Resumption in the Coal Mines.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 26.

The men in the employ of the Pittston &amp; Clinton company, Deacon &amp; Brockley and Butler Coal companies have resolved to resume work at the same terms given by the Pennsylvania Central to their men as soon as the operators will permit them to enter the works. There is only one shaft remaining idle in this place and resumption will probably take place on or before Monday next.

Nova Scotians Denouncing the Treaty.

HALIFAX, May 26.

The Chronicle this morning has a very strong article denouncing the treaty. The opposition journals are urging the government to convene the legislature, in order that that portion of the treaty on Washington bearing upon the fisheries may be discussed.

THE PRESBYTERIANS.

The General Assembly at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 26.

In the Presbyterian Assembly to-day the following resolution was adopted: That telegraphic communication signed by our officers in the name of the Assembly, be sent to the International Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association, now in session at Washington City, expressing to them our brotherly satisfaction with the assurance of our petition for divine guidance and success in their efforts to promote evangelical religion and to advance the kingdom of the Great Captain, under whose banner we are all enlisted.

Permission was granted J. M. Wilson, Esq., to address the body on the subject of manes for churches. His remarks were interrupted by the anxiety to hurry forward the business of the day, and the following resolution was adopted: That the thanks of this Assembly be presented to Mr. J. M. Wilson for his protracted and self-denying labors in the securing of the comfort of ministers of the Presbyterian Church.

The recommendations contained in the report of the Committee on Manes was taken up and adopted as follows: 1st. That the Committee on Manes be continued.

2d. That Presbyteries be requested to appoint a committee on Manes to co-operate with the Assembly, and a commissioner to take charge of the matter within the bounds of their Presbyteries; and the Churches are instructed to aid in carrying out the wishes of the Assembly.

3d. That the committee be authorized to prepare and publish, when complete, a detailed report of the result of their labors, with such suggestions as may be deemed useful; drawings, specifications, and plans or manes be added, ranging in cost from $1,000 to $5,000; that copies of said report be sent to the Moderator and Clerks of the General Assembly of Synods, and to each member of the Committee on Manes of the Synods.

4th. That the Treasurer of the Assembly be instructed to pay for mission expenses incurred in the preparation, publication and distribution of the report of the Committee on Manes from the contingent fund of the General Assembly, not to exceed $1,000.

The report of the standing Committee on Foreign Missions, the order of the day, was taken up and read. The mission year of the Board ended April 30, 1870, with a total of $44,000. By a noble effort of a few friends this debt was, in a great measure, provided for before the last General Assembly adjourned, so that the board enters on the duties of the year now completed virtually free from debt, besides having at their disposal the sum required, according to their estimates, for the support of their missions in India, China and Japan, to the 1st of October, or five months in advance. Receipts from all sources in the year ending April 30, 1871, has been $250,550.39; expenditures, $173,803.16; leaving a balance against the Board of $76,747.23. This unexpected result may be owing in part to the resignation of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some portions of the country; in part to a number of objects which have presented appeals to the benevolence of our Christian people of foreign missions; 5,000 copies of the pamphlet edition, and 68,500 of the newspaper edition published in expectation of the state of some of the churches in the depressed state of business affairs in some